

" Each Day's A Gift "

Music by Ülo Vinter / English lyric by Liz Vidal

How wonderful it is - to watch a river flow
We can't say where it's been - we can't say where it goes
But for a minute it's right here
Cool and clear
That's all we need to know...

We live our lives now day by day
And that's okay
Each day's a gift...

When shadows fall I know - the moon's about to rise
I hope we always see - it through a child's eyes
A thousand stars fill up the sky
Shining bright
It's time to make a wish...

We live our lives now day by day
And that's okay
Each day's a gift...

Tomorrow waits for us - and there will be sunlight
But there's no need to rush - it's beautiful tonight
A thousand stars fill up the sky
Shining bright
It's time to make a wish...
We live our lives now day by day
And that's okay
Each day's a gift...
