

In the Blink of an Eye
Music by Arne Oit / English lyric by Harold Payne

Don't get used to the weather
It won't be sunny forever
But while it's here I'm gonna bask in the glow Til the sky turns into indigo the world Sometimes can be heartless But you'll find a way through the darkness
It won't be long before you're feelin' (just) fine
Hold onto your hat
Get ready to fly
It can change in the blink of an eye

Just an itty bitty blink of an eye

And don't hold out til tomorrow
There's no time left to borrow Take a slice of that pie in the sky
Hold onto your hat
Get ready to fly
It can change in the blink of an eye

One thing leads to another Change (from) a friend to a lover a little spark becomes a burnin' flame
And nothing's ever gonna be the same
Don't look over your shoulder
And let that fire get colder
Just keep livin' (life) a day at a time
Hold onto your hat
Get ready to fly
It can change in the blink of an eye

In a snap, just like that

Ain't no use in complainin'
If it's sunny or rainin'

Don't sit and let another day go by
Hold on to your hat
Get ready to fly
It can change in the blink of an change in a blink of an change in a blink of an eye

Grab your hat
Get ready to fly
It can change in the blink of an eye

I
