

„ INSIDE EACH HEARTBEAT „

Music by: Eino Tamberg / Music by: Liz Vidal

When it's raining
When the wind is blowing cold out-side my window
Doesn't matter
'Cause I'm warm here in the laughter - of my own dreams
I know what I see is - a world of make believe
It's a world where everything is as it should be
It feels just as real as - any place I've ever seen
And it keeps me safe inside each heartbeat.

When I'm dreaming
All that matters is a blue sky's - up above me
I remember
Everyone I ever loved and - those who loved me
I forget that outside is the - darkest of nights
There's no time to count clouds that go by
I'm so grateful for every single moment of my life
And the dreams that keep me safe inside of Safe inside each heartbeat

Instrumental

When it's raining
When the wind is so cold outside my window
Doesn't matter
'Cause I'm warm in the laughter of my own dreams
It's only make believe
But I keep you here with me
Inside each heartbeat.
