

„ L-O-V-E „, Music by Leo Normet - Lyrics by Alan Roy Scott

You sure make me crazy sometimes changing plans and changing your mind then just when I think I could scream you give me those “I’m sorry” eyes cause you know it gets me every time

And then you kiss me that way Smiling with your “come get me” face
I can feel my heart start to race
I know I should be mad at you, but what am I supposed to do?

Oooh, I love when you act like this Moving to the top of my list (You’re) Everything I just can’t resist Opposites sure do attract, it makes it even better making up after we’re having a fight being wrong was never so right it only whets my appetite for more and more of all you are, cause everything is great so far

Cause nobody told me that the story goes, with all these highs and lows, and everything in between Fasten your seat belts, it’s a bumpy ride, here on the wild side, it’s one hell of a scene

I’m trying not to analyze it too much and wreck it i am at the point where I expect the unexpected Cause after everything is said and done, I am in L-O-V-E....love !!!

Cause nobody told me that the story goes, with all these highs and lows,
and everything in between
Fasten your seat belts, it’s a bumpy ride, here on the wild side,
it’s one hell of a scene

i am at the point where I expect the unexpected Cause after everything is said and done, I am in L-O-V-E....love !!!
