

„ SAAREMAA „

Music by ; Uno Naissoo / Lyrics by ; Alan Roy Scott

In a moment in a heartbeat your whole life can be changed

Just like the moment I first saw you that day on Saaremaa

When you smiled it was over a brand new love was born so full of laughter, and all that came after

that day on Saaremaa

But then in a flash, the years just fly by with too much to do, and never enough time till we get forgotten, our love pushed aside and we start losing ourselves along the way

But somehow, we're still together
And I'm never, ever gonna let you go we're in this moment
where it all started look at where we are

till we get forgotten, our love pushed aside

But somehow, we're still together
And I'm never, ever gonna let you go
we're in this moment
back on Saaremaa
